FISHERMAN SP1 D48

DESCRIPTION

Fisherman is an industrial style chandelier made of chromed metal base with arm and chrome adjustable metal shade with white glass diffuser in vintage design. The lampshade with a bell and a little vintage shape is available in three different color finishes, very modern and trendy, available to choose from black, copper and chrome. Fisherman can be used in an industrial style kitchen to illuminate, for example, the peninsula either individually or in composition or even for illuminating public buildings such as restaurants.
